Norwich Warriors In Lead Again

Win Duckpin Match Three Straight-McGrath Matched with Indian-Hal Chase in Smallpox Hospital.

In a hotly contested match at the Rose alleys Fridgy night Westerly team No. 2 cracked before the fierce onslaught of the Norwich Wariors and lost the match, three straight. The home team was forced to its bent pace, winning the first string on the roll off after a tie at 441, taking the second by 3 pins and rolling the visitors off their feet in the last by 47 pins. The victory puts the Warriors in the lead of the league, as Westerly team No. 1 rolled at New London and falled to take the match on straight strings.

Sudden Appearance of Activity and

New York, April 8.—The day's pro-ceeding in the stock market exampli-fied the adage that "every dog has his lay," the stock exchange's special adaptation of the term dog making the old saying apt. The market gave ev-ery evidence at an early stage of a disposition to curtail operations on the ous poots to rush into prominence unnumerable favorites and to push them upward with violent advances. The sudden appearance of activity and strength was accompanied by nothing in the news to account for it, either of a general tenor or of special application to the stocks affected. There was little even in the way of rumors to explain the appearance in the spotlight of stocks which have stood in the background during all the period of activity in the stocks of larger issues and more representative charactes. Some others have not appeared on the tape at all for days or weeks past. The substantial body of the stock list was quiescent, too, but firm in tone. Such an ebuilition as that of today in low grade stocks is accepted usually as a sign of degeneration in the speculation and a harbinger of the end of a movement. The market showed its usual recent disposition to ignore had signs, however, and there was no urgent pressure to get out of stockholdings over the holiday interval. The stock market kept one seye on the wheat market, and saw evidence there to con-

RETURN MATCH WITH INDIAN. McGrath Signs to Wrestle Again-Match Will Be a Hummer,

Jack McGrath, the Irish Giant, and Chief Fighting Bear, the Indian, have been signed for another wrestling match, which will definitely settle which is the best man at the mat game. Jim Barnes, the Indian's manager, was here from Springfield on Thursday and agreed to send his man against the Giant next Thursday night here for a finish match, best two out of three, winner to take all the gate receipts, but no side bet up.

McGrath is putting himself into the best shape possible and is determined to convince his followers that he was out of condition when the Indian threw him in the recent meeting. He is doing some road work, but more of Jack McGrath, the Irish Giant, and

New Haven Conn. April &—In view of the fach that Yale will probably not row on Carnegie like, at Princeton, at its formal opening next month, and the general feeling that Yale should meet Princeton, the Princeton crew has been invited to take part in the Yale spring regatta. As yet no answer has been received from the Princeton rowing authorities. Jack Riley, one of the strong out-fielders on the Hospital nine last year, is lacking for a job this season in pro-fessional company. Jack has proved himself a good man in the outer terti-tory, and he also has the ability to sting the ball at the right moment, so that he ought to make good if given a chance.
